

François-Xavier Dub appointed General Manager of Generali Employee Benefits (GEB)

- Generali Employee Benefits (GEB), the Group entity dedicated to providing solutions for multinational companies to protect and enhance the wellbeing of their workforce, announces the appointment of François-Xavier Dub within the general management.

François-Xavier Dub was since 2019 Head of Insurance within the Partnerships division at Generali France.

As General Manager of Generali Employee Benefits, a provider of global social protection solutions for employees of multinational companies, he reports directly to Ludovic Bayard, appointed CEO of GEB in May 2022.

François-Xavier Dub began his career in 2008, within the General Inspectorate of Société Générale, before joining the strategy consulting firm Exton Consulting in 2010, first as a senior consultant and then as a manager.

In 2014 he joined Generali France as Director of Operations within the Partnerships Department. He was appointed Director of Personal Insurance Solutions in 2016, and then extended his scope of responsibility to Property and Casualty Insurance Solutions in 2019.

François-Xavier Dub, 38, is an actuary, he graduated from École Polytechnique and holds a Master of Science from MIT.

ABOUT GENERALI EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Generali Employee Benefits (GEB) is the Generali Group's global employee benefits platform protecting employees of multinational Corporates and enhancing their wellbeing through a dedicated eco-system of services. Present in more than 120 countries thanks to its network partners, GEB is a leading provider of local insurance products and related services for life, pension, accident and health as well as global solutions: captive, pooling, global underwriting to support its customers in the governance and steering of their worldwide exposures. The GEB network operates through 12 Regional offices worldwide coordinated by its headquarters in Luxembourg (Assicurazioni Generali SpA- Luxembourg Branch). GEB is part of the Global Business Lines of the Generali Group (Europ Assistance, Generali Global Corporate & Commercial, Generali Employee Benefits, Generali Arte).

Find out more: geb.com

ABOUT GENERALI FRANCE

Generali France is today one of the main insurers and asset managers in France with a turnover of 15.5 billion euros in 2021 and offers its 7.8 million individual and professional customers and businesses, a full range of insurance solutions (health, personal protection, assistance, property and liability), estate savings and asset management. Established in France in 1832, Generali France relies on the know-how and expertise of its 9,000 employees, general agents and agency employees as well as its networks of brokers and intermediaries. Its vision: to be the Lifetime partner of its customers and distributors.

As a committed company, Generali France puts sustainability at the heart of its strategy with the ambition of being an insurer, an investor, an employer and a responsible actor, in particular through its foundation The Human Safety Net.

Find out more: generali.fr